Trends and Economic Conditions

Management regularly monitors economic conditions and estimates their impact on the Company's operations and incorporates these estimates in both short-term operating and longer-term strategic decisions.

Due to the worldwide COVID-19 pandemic, material uncertainties may arise that could influence management's going concern assumption. Management cannot accurately predict the future impact COVID-19 may have on:

- Global precious or base metal prices;
- Demand for precious or base metal and the ability to explore for precious or base metal;
- The severity and the length of potential measures taken by governments to manage the spread of the virus, and their effect on labour availability and supply channels;
- Availability of government supplies, such as water and electricity;
- Purchasing power of the Canadian dollar; and
- Ability to obtain funding.

At the date of this Interim MD&A, the Canadian federal government and the provincial government of Ontario have not introduced measures that have directly impeded the operational activities of the Company. Although cash in the Company has declined, management believes the business will continue and, accordingly, the current situation has not impacted management's going concern assumption. However, it is not possible to reliably estimate the length and severity of these developments and the impact on the financial results and condition of the Company in future periods.

Apart from these and the risk factors noted under the heading "Risks and Uncertainties", management is not aware of any other trends, commitments, events or uncertainties that would have a material effect on the Company's business, financial condition or results of operations.

See "Cautionary Note Regarding Forward-Looking Information" above.

Outlook

The Company intends to continue exploring properties that have the potential to contain precious and base metals. In addition, management will review project submissions, and conduct independent research, for projects in such jurisdictions and commodities as it may consider prospective.

There is no assurance that equity capital will be available to the Company in the future in the amounts or at the times desired or on terms that are acceptable to the Company, if at all. See "Risks and Uncertainties" below.

Financial Highlights

Three months ended April 30, 2022 compared with three months ended April 30, 2021

The Company's net loss totaled $946,907 for the three months ended April 30, 2022, with basic and diluted loss per share of $0.03. This compares with a net loss of $266,165 with basic and diluted loss per share of $0.01 for the three months ended April 30, 2021. The Company had no revenue in both periods presented. The increase in net loss was principally due to:

- Exploration and evaluation expenditures increased to $939,033 for the three months ended April 30, 2022, compared to $132,382 for the three months ended April 30, 2021. The increase of $806,651 can be attributed to increased exploration activity. Refer to the heading "Exploration Updates" above for a summary of the Company's exploration programs for the Company's property portfolio.
- Professional fees increased in the three months ended April 30, 2022, to $41,166 compared with $8,929 for the same period in 2021, primarily due to higher corporate activity requiring external professional support services.
- Share-based payments increased in the three months ended April 30, 2022 to $148,008 compared with $65,571 for the same period in 2021. The increase is due to the timing of expensing the estimated fair value of stock options and restricted stock units ("RSUs") granted in prior and current periods. The Company expenses its stock options and RSUs in accordance with the vesting terms of the stock options and RSUs granted.
- Premium on flow-through shares increased in the three months ended April 30, 2022, to $235,393 compared to $nil for the same period in 2021. The Company has adopted a policy whereby proceeds from flow-through issuances are allocated between the offering of shares and the sale of tax benefits based on the difference between the quoted price of the existing shares and the amount the investor pays for the shares. A liability is recognized for this difference and is extinguished by crediting premium on flow-through shares on a pro-rata basis as the expenditures are made.
- All other expenses related to general working capital purposes.

Angus Gold Inc.
Interim Management's Discussion and Analysis – Quarterly Highlights
Three Months Ended April 30, 2022
Discussion dated: June 28, 2022

The Company's total assets at April 30, 2022 were $1,128,481 (January 31, 2022 - $1,817,579) against total liabilities of $548,475 (January 31, 2022 - $561,274). The decrease in total assets of $689,098 resulted from cash spent on exploration and evaluation expenditures and operating costs. The Company had sufficient current assets to pay its existing current liabilities of $548,475 at April 30, 2022. Liabilities include flow-through share liability of $166,148 which is not settled through cash payments. Instead, this balance is amortized against qualifying flow-through expenditures, subject to deadlines imposed by the tax authorities.

Pursuant to the terms of flow-through share agreement, the Company is in the process of complying with its flow-through contractual obligations to subscribers with respect to the Income Tax Act (Canada) requirements for flow-through shares. As of April 30, 2022, the Company is committed to incurring approximately $573,000 in Canadian Exploration Expenditures (as this term is defined in the Income Tax Act (Canada)) by December 31, 2022 in connection with flow-through offerings.

Liquidity and Capital Resources

Management believes that the Company's cash and cash equivalents balance of $986,394 at April 30, 2022 is adequate to cover current expenditures and exploration expenses for the coming year.

The Company may, from time to time, when marketing and financing conditions are favourable, proceed with fundraising to fund exploration and property acquisition projects.

The activities of the Company, principally the acquisition and exploration of properties that have the potential to contain precious and base metals, are financed through the completion of equity transactions such as equity offerings and the exercise of stock options. There is no assurance that equity transactions will be available to the Company in the future in the amounts or at the times desired or on terms that are acceptable to the Company, if at all. See "Risks and Uncertainties" below.

During the three months ended April 30, 2022, 123,000 stock options were exercised for gross proceeds of $23,900.

The decrease in cash and cash equivalents of $482,072 from the January 31, 2022 cash and cash equivalents balance of $1,468,466 was a result of cash outflows in operating activities of $505,972 and cash inflows in financing activities of $23,900.

Operating activities were affected by adjustments of depreciation of $1,688, share-based payments of $148,008, shares issued for mineral properties of $98,700 and premium on flow-through common shares of $235,393, and net change in non-cash working capital balances of $427,932 because of a decrease in HST receivable of $212,885, an increase in prepaid expenses of $7,547, an increase in accounts payable and accrued liabilities of $193,571, and an increase in due to related parties of $29,023.
